

FLOORING REVOLUTION

Barn Oak Herringbone

Product Description

Luxury comes in all shapes and sizes with our range of engineered wood flooring. Take a look at our Barn Oak Herringbone, which will bring a touch of natural charm to many rooms in your home. The classic herringbone style will create a striking look and is sure to become a conversational piece with your guests. Delicate tones of light brown and cream exude charm and character, whilst the grain detail offers a rustic feel. The impressive 18mm thickness offers amazing stability, whilst the 4mm top layer provides added protection and durability helping to provide that much needed peace of mind. Complete with a brushed and UV oiled finish, Barn Oak Herringbone showcases an authentic wood appearance while also being able to deal with all aspects of a busy home.
